

Dear Friends,

On Sunday Leanna Rozean preached a wonderful sermon rooted in the parable of the Mustard Seed. Jesus' parable illustrates that genuine faith can begin very small, often undetectable. The smallest amount of faith, when placed in God's merciful hands, is guaranteed to grow mightily.

Friend, this is my prayer for you this week, that your hope will abound, that your faith will grow, no matter how small or undetectable it may seem. God is faithful in your life here and now, trust that promise in the challenges you face this week.

In Faith, Hope and Love,

Pastor John
